

Record why a round finished where it did, not just the number, by tracking the three statistics that explain almost all of it.

A score tells you what happened. Fairways hit, greens in regulation and putts tell you why. No handicap calculation is printed here — handicapping is run by your union or association and their method is the one that counts.

OP-03 · 2026 edition · page 1