

Horse Grooming and Care Round

Make a share or loan arrangement survive its first busy fortnight, by writing down who does what and having it ticked at the time.

The daily round split between sharers, loaners and yard staff, with a column for who actually did it.

TICKED AT THE TIME, WITH A NAME
Shared horses fail on the assumption that somebody else did it. A round with names against it, ticked at the time, is how a share arrangement survives its first busy fortnight.
