

LEGO and Model Set Inventory

List sets by number, which is the only thing anyone can actually search on, and record whether the box and instructions are still with them.

Sets owned, boxed or built, complete or not — with the set number, which is the only thing anybody actually searches on.

AN INVENTORY, NOT A PRICE GUIDE

No values are printed or implied. What a set is worth depends on condition, completeness, the box, the instructions and the day, and it is a question for a market, not a form. This sheet records what you own and what you paid.
