

Know what is in every box and where it is meant to end up, so you can find the kettle on the first night and tell on the day whether anything is missing.

Number the box before you fill it, and write that number on two sides and the top. A box stacked three deep with its label facing the wall may as well not be labelled at all. Keep this sheet with you rather than in the van.

Sheet

MB-02 · 2026 edition · page 1