

Keep each sow's breeding history on one page, so decisions about which sows to keep are made from records rather than impressions.

This records what happened. It sets no target litter size, no weaning age and no intervention point: those depend on your breed, your housing and your vet. Losses are recorded honestly here because a season read back without them teaches nothing.

[illegible]

LK-07 · 2026 edition · page 1