

Track weight gain against feed, so you know what a finished pig actually costs you and whether a batch is doing what it should.

Weights over time against the feed that produced them, so growth is a number rather than an impression.

No target weights, growth rates or feed conversion figures are printed. They differ by breed, system and what you are producing for. Write your own target in the header and measure against it.

Target and where it came from

Days on feed