

Property Key Register

Know how many keys exist and where they are, so you can tell whether a lock actually needs changing.

Which keys exist, who holds them, and whether they came back.

COUNT THEM OUT, COUNT THEM IN
Keys go missing quietly. A register turns 'I think the last tenant returned them all' into a question with an answer, and tells you when a lock genuinely needs changing.

Property

Locks changed on

Register started

Key or fob	What it opens	Cut or issued on	Issued to	Signed for	Returned on	Checked by

Total keys that should exist

Accounted for

Missing

Action taken on anything missing