

Record treatments with the wormer class written down, which is what makes any resistance plan possible a year later.

No product, dose, interval or wormer group rotation is printed here. Resistance management differs by region and by what your own faecal egg counts show; your vet or adviser is the source. Recording the group you used is what makes any rotation plan possible later.

Adviser

[illegible]

Records kept until